III. Summary and confirmation of waivers

I, the Competitor hereby state and guarantee:

- to the best of my knowledge, I am not suffering from any chronic diseases of the cardiovascular system, lungs and breathing apparatus, ears, or suffering of any other diseases that would impede my ability to participate in the freediving sport and therefore in this competition. I furthermore state, that I am not currently on any medication that might influence my performance or pose a health risk under strenuous exercise. Should my physical condition be subject to any negative change in the above sense, I will report to the organization committee of the competition and cease any further diving attempts. I have been fully informed of all aspects of freediving through participation in applicable and accepted courses and seminars. I am fully aware of all risks involved in freediving, including hypoxia, shallow water blackout, blood shift and general barotraumas. I will, without fail, follow all instructions of the organization committee, jury, and the safety personal. This applies to any safety relevant instructions given during the actual diving attempts. I am aware that any failure to follow these instructions may lead to immediate exclusion from the competition
- to have well understood and hence accepted the above provisions and waivers and that
- I am fully aware of the risks associated to my performances in the Event and in any of this kind and expressly represents that:
 - (i) my sportive behavior and performances will be such to avoid injuries and damages to me and any third parties;
 - (ii) I unconditionally accept the provisions of the Indemnity-related clauses as contemplated in Title 1 (Effectiveness and extension of indemnity), Title 2 (Waiver of liability) as well as the waivers and consequence at large that they entail and furthermore represent to have the financial capacity to honor any monetary consequence in respect thereof.

I understand and accept that this waiver is governed by the Laws of Italy and that any controversy arising in connection with this Indemnity all disputes arising from or related to this Agreement will be submitted to arbitration under the Sport-related Rules of Arbitration of the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne, which shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference into this Clause. It is agreed that:

- (a) there shall be three arbitrators;
- (b) the seat and legal place of the arbitration shall be Lausanne, Switzerland;
- (c) the language of the arbitration shall be English; and any decision of the arbitrators shall be final and binding and complied with by the parties without delay.
