3.1 Logo

On 17 May 2024, the International World Games Association (IWGA) and Chengdu ExCo officially released the logo of TWG 2025 Chengdu. The logo design is inspired by the Chinese giant panda, hibiscus flower and Chinese knot, with Chinese Red, Jinsha Yellow, Park Green, Panda Black and Snowy White as the main colours. As an important symbol of TWG 2025 Chengdu, this logo effectively conveys the Olympic spirit and highlights the traditional Chinese elements and the characteristics of Chengdu, highlighting the values of “Unity, Inclusiveness and Diversity”.

Vertical Version

The unveiled logo boasts vibrant hues and a minimalist design: the semicircular perimeter intertwined with a pattern of triangles elegantly frames a blooming hibiscus flower. Five colourful geometric blocks ingeniously form the faces of four cartoon pandas.

The Logo's composition draws upon the form of the Chinese knot, an ancient hand-made craft that symbolises unity, prosperity, and good fortune with its myriad shapes, akin to a Rubik's Cube woven from cords. The semicircles mimic panda ears while also serving as geometric hibiscus petals. Each of the four symmetrical sections presents a panda's face.

In early April, the review and selection meeting was convened in Chengdu, where 23 renowned designers, senior experts, scholars, and researchers, including HAN Meilin, senior professor of arts from Tsinghua University, and QIAN Zhe, BIL Division Chief of Beijing 2008 Summer Olympics, assessed the shortlisted designs and narrow down to ten finalists. Following further professional refinement, five candidate logos were chosen for a public vote.

The five-day voting campaign attracted over 100,000 participants, with a total of more than 220,000 likes. The logo, which was inspired by the hibiscus flower, the giant panda and the Chinese knot and designed by John Fairley, secured the top spot with 55,679 votes, making it the crowd favourite. After joint review by TWG 2025 Chengdu LOC and IWGA, the logo was officially unveiled.

3.2 Slogan

The slogan “Boundless Sports, Countless Wonders” implies that in Chengdu, a land of promise, tradition and modernity coexist in harmony, the fast pace of a metropolis and the slow life of the residents form a delightful contrast, the leisure and easiness on every street and lane and the competing essence of sportsmanship echo each other, and sports, like a dazzling spark, ignite the infinite potential and possibility of this city, making happiness prevail in this land of countless wonders.

Among the 3,749 designs solicited from home and abroad, we found evident similarity. Many designs integrate the fighting spirit of sports with the charm of Shu culture. Some designs share the same vision and inspiration. Taking “sports vibes, Chengdu flavours, and international communication” as the key idea, upon the agreement with the IWGA, the Executive Committee of TWG 2025 Chengdu finally selected “Boundless Sports, Countless Wonders” as the slogan of TWG 2025 Chengdu after several rounds of review and discussions, with input from parties of interests and experts. This slogan is widely representative and highly accepted by the public.

“Boundless Sports” implies the infinite possibility of sports spirit, which encourages every athlete to challenge themselves and transcend the limit, and “Countless Wonders” shows the harmonious integration of “fast and slow” and “traditional and modern” lifestyle in Chengdu, hoping that guests from all over the world can also feel for themselves the unique life philosophy and human care of Chengdu in their spare time.

运动无限 气象万千
Boundless Sports, Countless Wonders

The slogan of TWG 2025 Chengdu embodies the world’s love for sports and recognition and affection for Chengdu. It represents not only collective wisdom, but also shared perception and aspiration. It is a thriving force supported and accepted by the public, vividly interpreting Chengdu’s passion for sports and attitude towards life.

3.3 Mascot

The mascots of TWG 2025 Chengdu are “Shu Bao” and “Jin Zai”, with the two treasures of Sichuan, i.e., the giant panda and Sichuan golden snub-nosed monkey, as the prototype. The giant panda is the best-known animal of Chengdu, and the Sichuan golden snub-nosed monkey is full of vigour and vitality. These two treasures are expected to showcase the image of Chengdu as a liveable and hospitable city and call on everyone to cherish rare animals and protect biodiversity.

The names of the mascots are inspired by “Shu Jin” (Shu brocade), with “Shu” and “Jin” as the first word of the names, respectively. The second word of each name captures the nature of giant panda and the Sichuan golden snub-nosed monkey. The giant panda is known for its loyalty and integrity under its cute and fluffy look and is therefore named “Bao” (meaning “baby”). Sichuan golden snub-nosed monkey is smart, brave, and bouncy. So, it is named “Zai” (meaning “young child”).

“Shu Bao” and “Jin Zai” give expression to Chengdu’s unique charm. As the ambassadors for cultural exchange, these two treasures will start from Chengdu, and embark on a journey to tell the story of Chengdu worldwide and make the message from Chengdu heard by the world. They will bridge Chengdu and the world, so that the spectators from across the globe can enjoy the sports festival held in Chengdu while savour the city’s infinite vigour and boundless glamour.
