About Sichuan Province

Situated in southwest China and on the upper reaches of the Yangtze River, Sichuan is renowned as “the Land of Abundance”. It covers an area of 486,000 square kilometres and borders with seven provinces (autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the central government), namely, Chongqing, Guizhou, Yunnan, Xizang, Qinghai, Gansu, and Shaanxi. The province has a permanent resident population of 83 million.

Boasting a long history, Sichuan is the cradle of ancient Shu civilisation, and the place where “Jiaozi”, the earliest banknote in the world, was born. Shu Brocade and Sichuan Shadow Play have been included in UNESCO’s list of intangible cultural heritage. Particularly the sites of the Sanxingdui Ruins and the Jinsha Ruins epitomise the resplendent and mysterious civilisation of ancient Sichuan.

The province also abounds in tourism resources, among which there are World Natural Heritage Sites including Jiuzhaigou Valley, Huanglong Scenic and Historic Interest Areas and Sichuan Giant Panda Sanctuaries, the World Cultural Heritage Site, Mount Qingcheng and the Dujiangyan Irrigation System, and the World Cultural and Natural Heritage Site, Mount Emei Scenic and Leshan Giant Buddha Scenic Area.

Chengdu Tianfu International Airport

With convenient transportation infrastructure, Sichuan is a transportation hub in southwest China. It has two international airports (Chengdu Tianfu International Airport and Chengdu Shuangliu International Airport), with an annual passenger throughput of 75 million in total. The non-stop high-speed railway service between Chengdu and HKSAR, China has been provided since 1 July 2023, with a total of 1.5 million passengers transported so far. In addition, it runs nearly 30,000 trips made by the Chengdu International Railway Service.

Sichuan is active in external exchanges. It has established friendly relations with 440 provinces (states) in 81 countries, and economic and trade relations with over 200 countries and regions. 381 out of the Fortune Global 500 Enterprises operate in Sichuan. Chengdu, the capital of Sichuan Province, is one of the cities where 144-hour visa-free transit policy is in force. Chengdu applies the visa-free transit policy to 54 countries.

About Chengdu

Chengdu is the hometown of the Giant Pandas and enjoys over 4,500 years of civilisation history and more than 2,300 years of history as a city, manifesting a perfect mixture of history, culture and modernity. Being the capital of Sichuan Province and a central city in southwest China, Chengdu covers an area of 14,300 square kilometres and has a permanent population of 21.4 million, which has turned it into a mega-city known to the world. It is also an important centre of economy, science and technology, finance, cultural creativity, and international exchanges in China, and an international hub for comprehensive transportation and communications.

Today's Chengdu values opening up with global vision. In total, 23 countries have been approved to establish consulates in Chengdu. And the city has established sister-city and friendship city relations with 112 cities around the world, and trade relations with 235 countries or regions worldwide. Chengdu is the third city having two international airports on the Chinese mainland, following Shanghai and Beijing, and the 19th city with two 4F airports in the world. It has opened 71 regular international/regional passenger and freight flight routes. In addition, it runs trips to 112 overseas cities made by international railway services.

Chengdu has been awarded as the City of Gastronomy by UNESCO for its world-renowned Sichuan cuisine, great variety of delicious street food, and tasty spicy hot pot. It is also one China's Best Tourist City selected by UNWTO. Tianfu culture, the bedrock of Chengdu's city culture, has been nourishing the people and the city with the spirits of valuing innovation, creativity, elegance, fashion, optimism, inclusiveness, friendship, and public welfare. Chengdu has won the bids to host the Chengdu FISU World University Games, the Thomas & Uber Cup Finals 2024 and the 2023 World Science Fiction Convention, among other large international events. Culture and sports have become the two focal points as Chengdu is going global in a more open and confident manner.

Organisational Structure of the Organising Committee of TWG 2025 Chengdu

Series of Meetings in October 2024 for The World Games 2025 Chengdu

4.1 The 2nd Competition Managers Meeting of TWG 2025 Chengdu

The 2nd CMM was held in Century City International Conference Centre on the morning of 23 October. Nearly 100 guests, including the IWGA ExCo members, IWGA partners, competition managers of IFs and representatives of the host city of the next TWG, gathered in Chengdu with representatives from the General Administration of Sport of China, the China Disabled Persons' Federation, the Sichuan Provincial Workgroup for the Promotion and Coordination of TWG 2025 Chengdu, and the Executive Committee of TWG 2025 Chengdu to discuss and advance the preparations for TWG 2025 Chengdu.

During the meeting, the operations and preparations regarding the venues were informed. According to the introduction, there will be 13 indoor venues and 15 outdoor venues (28 venues in total) in 8 venue clusters, most of which are renovated venues or temporary structures.

Domestic and international competition managers inspected the competition venues of 35 sports, and discussed the venue layout, operational design planning, competition schedule, equipment preparation, and team establishment on the site, laying a solid foundation for the future preparations.

By mid-October, 22 test events with international participants have been planned and organized, providing training for nearly 2,000 staff members. In 2025, test events will be conducted in various forms. It is planned to hold 53 test events and drills, including IF-specific events with domestic and overseas participants, special simulations, and comprehensive drills.

5.3 Sports Presentation

According to the requirement of holding TWG 2025 Chengdu in a simple, safe and the demands made during the competition meetings with IFs, the sports presentation consists of basic presentation, general presentation, and major presentation. There will be no lighting and stage art for all outdoor sports. The basic presentation includes announcement, audios, and videos; the general presentation includes announcement, audios, videos, and interactive performance; and the major presentation includes announcement, audios, videos, interactive performance, and DJ. According to the sport characteristics, about 3,200 videos of the 35 sports will be produced to meet the needs of athletes march-in, semi-finals, and finals, and a music library with over 3,000 pieces including domestic and overseas pop music, rock and roll, electronic music, electronic dance music, and symphony will be established for sports presentations and award ceremonies, meeting the functional needs such as athlete march-in music, warm-up music, and iconic music. For the award ceremonies of all sports, the flags will be raised in an electronic manner, i.e., on LED screens. Interactive performances will be planned according to the requirements of the sports and the actual venue condition and characteristic cultural displays and performances will also be planned, such as cheerleading dance, jazz dance, and band performances, to improve the quality of sports presentation. Medals and award ceremony supplies with Chengdu feature will be made according to the requirements of IWGA and IFs, so that the medallists can bring Chengdu with them.

6.1 Accommodation

In accordance with the Organiser Agreement, which stipulates “providing quota-based accommodation for the International World Games Association and its guests at the Headquarters Hotel”, the InterContinental Century City Chengdu is designated as the Headquarters Hotel. The hotel booking process will commence once the International World Games Association confirms the number of occupants.

The targeted clients of TWG Village includes athletes and team officials, ITO/NTOs, and over-quota officials (including NOC-NSO officials) who need to cover their own expenses. TWG Village Area A covers 4 districts including Tianfu New Area, Eastern New District, Jianyang City, and Longquan District, involving 20 competition venues for 24 events, with a plan to provide 2,700 rooms for accommodation services for participants. TWG Village Area B covers 4 districts including High-Tech Zone, Wuhou District, Jinniu District, and Xindu District, involving 8 competition venues for 12 events, with a plan to provide 960 rooms for accommodation services for participants.

6.2 Transportation

We will provide transportation services for arrivals and departures, competitions, training, opening and closing ceremonies, and major official events for registered guests, including members and Valued Guests of the International World Games Association, athletes, technical officials, and registered media, in accordance with the Organiser Agreement. We are currently formulating transportation service standards and support plans based on the needs of different guest groups, and these will be announced successively after March 2025.

6.3 Catering

As the selection of catering service providers for TWG 2025 Chengdu is underway, the menu of dining halls in the TWG Village will be announced successively in January 2025.

The schedules for the athlete's cafeteria, technical officials' cafeteria, and halal cafeteria at the World University Village are as follows:

Breakfast: 06:00-08:30; Lunch: 11:00-14:00;

Dinner: 17:00-20:00; Late Night Snack: 22:00-24:00 (for events after 20:00 in the night)

6.4 Medical Services

According to the distribution of venue clusters and the risks of each sport, medical and health services personnel will be allocated by levels and classes, and a coordinated support system will be established. The specific support and measures will be released after March 2025.

6.5 Ticketing

The overall planning and implementation plan of ticketing are being developed. The ticketing rules will be released as soon as possible after finalisation.

6.6 Doping Control

The World Anti-Doping Code of the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) and applicable international standards and doping control guidelines for sports events will be strictly implemented during TWG 2025 Chengdu to ensure the fair sportsmanship and clean sport.

On 26 September 2024, the Department of Sports (Doping Control) and IWGA Anti-Doping Committee held their first video work conference on doping control, focusing on the study and discussion of core anti-doping work such as doping control plan, appointment of doping control officers, setting up of doping control stations and construction of doping control education stations.

According to the time when IWGA provides the anti-doping guidelines to Chengdu ExCo, the doping control plan of TWG 2025 Chengdu is expected to be released in Bulletin #3 in February 2025.

6.7 Insurance

In accordance with the Rules of The World Games, IFs must ensure that all their participants have adequate private health and repatriation insurance during TWG 2025 Chengdu. The participants should purchase adequate medical insurance and repatriation insurance at their place of departure. The medical insurance shall at least cover accidental medical treatment, sudden illness and hospitalisation allowance. The repatriation insurance shall cover the costs in case of an emergency where you need to return to your place of departure.

All participants must have valid insurance and provide the insurance certificate upon their arrival in Chengdu to collect their accreditation cards. Chengdu ExCo and IWGA will not be liable for any risks arising therefrom.

Opening and Closing Ceremonies

The Opening and Closing Ceremonies will be held on 7 and 17 August 2025, respectively. The selection of venues for the opening and closing ceremonies is underway, and the creative plans of these ceremonies are being developed and designed.

8.1 Merchandising

At present, 12 categories of TWG 2025 Chengdu licensed merchandise has been launched online, including precious metal products, non-precious metal products, toys, jewelry, clothing, stationery and office supplies, daily necessities, and cross-border empowerment products. There are cute mascot-related licensed products of “Shubao” and “Jinzai” such as plush dolls, flameless aromatherapy, eco-friendly handbags, sunny/rainy umbrellas, and multi-purpose pillow blankets, as well as exquisite and chic badges, souvenir badges, and other adorable licensed products for gift-giving. Among them, the co-branded badges launched with Team China and the commemorative badges of the “Twelve Scenes of TWG 2025 Chengdu” have been well received by all walks of life.

The TWG 2025 Chengdu licensed merchandise incorporates rich Tianfu cultural elements and embodies the profound connotation of Tianfu culture. Licensed merchandise is not only the material embodiment of the spirit of The World Games but also a perfect combination of cultural exchange, emotional resonance, and market development. They are of great significance in promoting the development of The World Games and the spreading of Tianfu culture.

8.2 Volunteer Programme

On 26 October, the Launch Ceremony of Volunteer Recruitment for The World Games 2025 Chengdu was held at Chengdu Sport University. The Executive Committee of TWG 2025 Chengdu(Chengdu ExCo) officially released the volunteer programme, issuing a call to university students and other individuals in Chengdu to recruit approximately 15,000 volunteers to participate in the volunteer services, which marks the official start of the recruitment of volunteers for TWG 2025 Chengdu.

During the event, in addition to recruiting event volunteers, we will also recruit city volunteers to provide convenient services, urban promotion, and event consultation services for citizens, tourists, athletes, and other groups.

8.3 Young Reporters Programme

The recruitment of 24 young reporters is to be launched globally by 31 December 2024. These young reporters will arrive in Chengdu before the event and will participate in professional training jointly organised by the International World Games Association, the International Sports Press Association, and the Executive Committee of TWG 2025 Chengdu. They will participate in full event coverage and city exploration activities.

9.1 Broadcast

The International Sports Broadcasting (ISB) is the Host Broadcaster of TWG 2025 Chengdu. It will produce signals for the opening and closing ceremonies, semi-finals (if any) and finals of all sports in accordance with “4K+HD” standards. The planned public signal production totals over 1,300 hours. In combination with the latest broadcast technologies, social media (portrait screen) production, AI production and remote production will be used to meet the broadcast needs of domestic and overseas media on TVs and Internet new media.

China Media Group (CMG) is invited to be the largest rights-holding broadcaster in China. Through friendly cooperation, CMG will mobilise its all-platform media resources such as TV, radio and new media to comprehensively publicise and report TWG 2025 Chengdu and the charm of Chengdu in all aspects.

9.2 Main Media Centre (MMC)

The MMC is located in the Western Financial Innovation Center in Eastern New Area, Chengdu.

The MMC is the international news editorial office and TV signal production and transmission centre for reporting and broadcasting the grand occasion of TWG 2025 Chengdu. At the Games time, it will receive accredited written press, photographers, Host Broadcaster and rights-holding broadcasters. It is the media headquarters for news publicity, media operations and sports broadcast, and the information release centre for Chengdu ExCo, IWGA and IFs.

The MMC will provide all kinds of facilities and services for the media to report TWG 2025 Chengdu. The core functional areas are located on Level 1-2 in Building 1 and convention center, including media workrooms, press conference rooms, dedicated media spaces, media interview rooms, and media lounges. The official news agency of TWG 2025 Chengdu (i.e., Xinhua News Agency) will provide all accredited written press, photographers, radio and television reporters with free downloadable press releases, official pictures, official short videos and other news report materials which are produced by the official news information collection team, photography team and short video team via the INFO system.

The core functional area of the IBC is located in Building 7 (1F-3F), including the media studio, broadcast editing area, and media convergence production centre. It is the place where public radio and television signals of TWG 2025 Chengdu are collected, produced and distributed. The Host Broadcaster, i.e., ISB, will provide all rights-holding broadcasters with professional production equipment necessary for Games-time broadcast and report there.

To facilitate the reporting of TWG 2025 Chengdu by domestic and overseas media, there will also be functional areas such as the media restaurant, medical room and Media Accreditation Centre in the MMC to provide services in terms of media accreditation, catering, transportation, medical care, information technology and language. The MMC will be operated intelligently during TWG 2025 Chengdu.

On the periphery of the MMC, there will also be a media transportation hub to provide shuttle buses travelling to and from the media hotels, media centers in competitions venues and VOCs of non-competition venues including the venues for opening and closing ceremonies. Technological support will be provided in all respects, including “media+” dedicated communication, broadcast convergence network and competition live-streaming to new report and broadcast.

Main Media Centre

The MMC commits to providing the media with all necessary facilities and thoughtful services. There will be special flows designed for different groups and supplies to enter and exit the MMC. Only the personnel with valid accreditation cards and vehicles with valid vehicle access and parking permits (VAPPs) can enter the MMC and can only get to the area with access indicated on the accreditation cards or VAPPs after security check, so as to avoid area overlap or flow intersection.

The MMC will start trial operation on 25 July 2025 and officially open for Games-time operations on 4 August 2025, providing warm and thoughtful services for accredited written press, photographers, radio and television journalists and broadcasters from all over the world.

At present, the MMC is under detailed planning of its functional areas. According to the plan, the upgrading of MMC's fundamental functions will be started in January 2025. Given that the MMC will operate in the spotlight of the media worldwide, the venue operations team will fully demonstrate China's highest-level media operations management, provide all necessary support to the new conference of all media, and showcase China's capability and strength to provide services and support for major sports events.

9.3 Dedicated Mobile Application

Chengdu 2025, the official app of TWG 2025 Chengdu, will provide essential services for all participants, including athletes, referees, technical officials, IWGA ExCo members, and media. For example, valued guests can use the app to book vehicles or check shuttle schedule, while media can book hotels or media activities.

The app is planned to be available on major global app stores by April 2025, including Huawei AppGallery, Xiaomi GetApps, Tencent App Store, V-App Store, OPPO App Market, App Store, Google Play, and Galaxy Store.
